ANNUAL MEETING

NOVEMBER 18, 1942

The Annual Meeting of The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society was held on November 18, at 3 P. M., in the Insurance Company of North America Building, 1600 Arch Street, Philadelphia. The President, C. Frederick C. Stout, was in the chair. One hundred and sixty-six members and eight guests were present.

Election was announced of the following candidates to the Executive Council to serve for the next three years (one-third of entire membership of Council is elected each year): Mrs. E. Page Allinson, Mrs. Robert H. Irons, Dr. John M. Fogg, Jr., Mr. Fairman R. Furness, Mr. William Clarke Mason, Mr. Benjamin Rush, Jr., Mr. William J. Serrill, and Mr. C. Frederick C. Stout.

The Secretary, John C. Wister, presented his annual report, which reviewed the activities of the Society for the past year, and the President reported on the general condition and policy of the Society during war-time.

An illustrated lecture, "Rare Floral Treasures from the Southeast," by Mrs. J. Norman Henry, a member of the Executive Council and well-known plant collector and botanist, was an interesting feature of the afternoon.

The hostesses included Mrs. John B. Carson, Mrs. F. Woodson Hancock, Jr., and Mrs. Alan H. Reed, of the Philadelphia area; and Mrs. Irving Warner, of Wilmington, Delaware; Mrs. Robert H. Irons, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Walter K. Sharpe, of Chambersburg. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT AS SUBMITTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

NOVEMBER 18, 1942

Another year has passed and today affords the opportunity for your officers to render an account of their stewardship. It is heartening to see such a good attendance and I extend a cordial welcome to all, both new members and old.

I am happy to report that in the face of the fact that we suffered a slight loss in income, we closed the old year with a balanced budget, thanks to the Chairmen of the various administrative committees. The report of our Treasurer, Mr. Benjamin Rush, Jr., will appear in the Year Book.

We welcome the presence of our Secretary, Mr. John C. Wister, whom we missed last year. His report will rehearse in detail the activities and work of the year.

There are a few things I should like to comment upon. The first, and most important, is the effect war economy has had on the Society, and I might add, also upon each of us individually. The Society has had to dedicate itself to assist in the war effort as it pertains to plant life for food purposes. We ourselves, as individuals, must assist it in that effort by our personal help. One of the outstanding effects of this changed condition has been to re-establish the importance of the kitchen garden in horticulture, and has brought the victory garden into our picture. This is a far more vital matter than now appears for food may win or lose the war. Let us not forget that we shall have to share our food supplies with many of our Allies and shortages are even now in the offing and rationing has come to our homes.

The war brings to the forefront the hidden economic forces of our economy. These forces are working in the reverse, that is, destructively instead of constructively as in peace times. National economy has been likened to a handwoven fabric of intricate design. The forces which ultimately control it are the same natural laws we find in husbandry—in fact, husbandry is the source of them.

Our economy is built about the capitalistic system which furnishes the universal medium of exchange (our currency) and has been woven by the people themselves under the government's protection and regulation of free enterprise. In action, it is the exchange of food, goods and services and furnishes the means by which community life exists. In times of stress, such as war, it becomes a necessity for the government to regulate our economy, not only by statute, but by executive order, that this human mechanism may be preserved to serve its part in the national effort. These regulations as they are put into effect restrict the freedom of our individual action and direct all effort to the prosecution of the war, which transcends all human purposes.

Last year in my report to you I said, "As we approach our new year and the nation becomes more deeply entangled in the endless meshes of world conditions, we will, unquestionably, be called upon to give more and more attention to budgeting. I wish that, when we do our budgeting, we would not do it from a financial standpoint alone but that we would also budget our time. Evidently there are many things we spend time doing that could be dropped with less loss to ourselves than our interest in horticulture. Horticulture is part of Mother Nature herself in which alone lies eternal truth, our most faithful friend. It is eternal truth that is being brought home to the world in the present conflict and it alone will carry on. So, let us feel our membership in this Society is not a casual thing but that we are investing our time in a way that will give us the greatest understanding and satisfaction in return."

Therefore, I hope that when you receive your bill for membership you will not pass it by but that it will be placed among your first considerations, and that you will also see that your best endeavors to secure additional members are exerted.

There is a great painting by a great artist which most of you have seen, either in the original or copies. It is "The Angelus" by Millet. In it you see the spirit of toil and the spirit of devotion and the spirit of service to both. It may be that a garden frock or a farmer's overalls are not as enchanting as many of the uniforms of the war service organizations but, at this time and under present conditions, they are the insignia of the same thing—Service.

In closing this report, I wish to extend my appreciation and thanks to my co-officers and the executive body in the office, who have made our service here a real pleasure.

Before our meeting is over, we are to have the treat of the afternoon. I consider that we are fortunate in having on our Council such a servant to botany as Mrs. J. Norman Henry. In her exploration journeys in search of new varieties to be added to our garden catalogues, she is truly a modern Bartram.

C. FREDERICK C. STOUT,
President.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY FOR 1942

Your President has given you the condition of the Society in general and the various committees have given full details of their work. I shall, therefore present only a brief review of the actual activities of the past year.

The winter season began with a Special Course of 7 lectures on practical gardening by Miss Wertsner. There was a registration fee of $1.10, and there were 119 enrollments. The Regular Lecture Series took place in January and February. The attendance ranged from 154 to 260. On account of the increased attention to growing vegetables and small fruits, three lectures on these subjects were added to the series in early spring, and the speaker at the Flower Show Luncheon in March gave a practical talk on vegetables.

In January, we co-operated again with the Garden Club Federation in a two-day Course for Flower Show Exhibitors which on account of war conditions was not as well attended as in former years. The Society's share of the profits amounted to $130.00, which was used to help defray expenses of our classes in the Philadelphia Flower Show. We are not planning an Exhibitors' Course for 1943.

The Philadelphia Flower Show in March, with its elaborate central feature of a Jungle Garden, was very beautiful. The Show will not be held in 1943.

Garden Visits started on May 9, with 5 gardens in Jenkintown. This was the only day with an attendance of over 300 members. Gasoline rationing was imminent, and interfered with the attendance. On the other two days, May 16, in Bala-Cynwyd and vicinity, and May 23, in Norristown, rationing was in effect and the highest point in attendance was reached at the Arboretum of the Barnes Foundation, in Merion, when 187 were recorded. The groups of gardens opened to us on the three days were at the height of their beauty and were enjoyed very much by those who visited them. A charge of 75c for each afternoon was made to guests of members.

We hope to arrange a series of visits this coming spring to gardens which are easily accessible by public conveyance but this, like all our other activities, will depend upon conditions at the time.

The number of visitors to the Library has decreased this past year. We were rather concerned about this situation but have learned from other special libraries that they have had the same experience. Evidently the condition is due to the fact that many gardeners, in common with other persons interested in war activities, find their time so occupied that they must neglect their more leisurely occupations for the present.

We have exchanged gold exhibition medals with the Massachusetts Horticultural Society and The Horticultural Society of New York during the year, and have made a number of awards at our own exhibitions. To stimulate the Victory Garden movement among other gardening organizations, the Exhibition Committee gave cash prizes, amounting to $135.00, for vegetable exhibits at local shows.

Our most noteworthy award of the year was the presentation, on March 18, 1942, of the Centenary Gold Medal to our President, Mr. Stout, for promoting the welfare of the Society during his term as Vice-President from 1920 to 1929, and then as President from 1929 to the present time. The Society also co-operated with the Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania and the Garden Club of America in presenting a scroll to Mrs. Arthur H. Scott, of Media (a Vice-President of our Society and a member of the Executive Council), for her personal achievements in horticulture and her encouragement of gardening, on May 23, 1942.

We had intended to hold a Chrysanthemum Show in November, in the Field House of Swarthmore College. The dates were fixed and the schedules ready to mail out in August when the decision was made to launch the Victory Garden Harvest Show. The Exhibition Committee did not consider it possible to stage two Shows at such short intervals, and therefore felt obliged to cancel the Chrysanthemum Show.

Due to conditions, the Committee on Garden Awards suspended its work in 1942.

Our members have probably noticed the change in emphasis in gardening as reflected by the magazine "Horticulture." The issues for the past year contain a great amount of material pertaining to Victory Gardens and to other war-time gardening activities.

Miss Wertsner, our Field Secretary, has, among her duties, given 59 lectures and visited 85 gardens.

We have had 2100 visitors to our quarters, of which number 975 came particularly to the Library. Seventy-eight meetings were held in our rooms, 29 by our own committees and Executive Council, and 49 by other Horticultural Boards.

In common with other similar organizations, we have lost members during the year. The record is as follows:

Membership as of December 15, 1941.....	4110
Resignations and deaths during year.....	590
	3520
New Members added during year .....	286
Total Membership as of December 15, 1942.....	3806

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE FOR 1942

Alas, we are warring deeply. Nothing could be more terrible than the sufferings that many of our countrymen must endure on our distant battlefronts. We must bear in mind constantly and take into consideration that our every action either helps or harms them. Our responsibility is great. Our fighting forces are doing their utmost, so must we. There are many spheres in which we may help and in which very many are already helping.

Our concern in The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society is to help advise and encourage all of those persons who are willing to assist in our country's great problem of food production. Some of us who have farms can produce meat, milk or both of these superlatively important items. But most of our members will be seeking a simpler method of food production, namely the growing of vegetables and food crops. Everyone who has a plot of ground can help, even those who have had no experience.

These are the people we want to help. Come to the rooms of The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, for in our Library we have many books on these subjects both for the beginner and for the advanced grower. There are also excellent short articles in all the current magazines where much may be learned in a short period of time.

Perhaps some of you who have no gardens will help others harvest their crops. But with all this serious work on hand, let us keep our flowers and our beauty spots, for a weary world needs the inspiration that comes from beauty. Let us help you by personal advice. We, too, want to do all we can in this, our great national emergency.

After the war those who did their bit will be the happy ones. They will have peace of mind and the glad feeling that they did what they could for their fellowmen when the great opportunity came.

The Library records show that 150 books were added this year, making a total of over 5300 volumes; there were 975 visitors to the Library; and 640 books were circulated among the members.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to the following donors of books: Mrs. Charles W. Bergner, the late Mr. Henry P. Busch, Mr. Wilbur Dubois, Mr. John Gill, Mrs. F. Woodson Hancock, Jr., Mrs. George N. Highley, Mr. Richard Pratt, Mrs. Alan H. Reed, Miss Winifred Teele and Mr. John C. Wister

Respectfully submitted,

MARY G. HENRY, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE LECTURE COMMITTEE FOR 1942

A series of lectures on Tuesday afternoons, free to members and their friends, and two special courses comprised the lecture program of the past year. All of the lectures were given in the Auditorium of the Insurance Company of North America Building, 1600 Arch Street, Philadelphia, and the program was as follows:

REGULAR SERIES OF LECTURES

January	13—"English Gardens" (Illustrated), Henry T. Skinner
January	27—"William Penn, Horticulturist," Mrs. Roy Arthur Hunt
February	10—Motion Pictures—with Sound
February	24—"Vegetables for the Duration and Afterwards," Dr. Warren B. Mack

The lectures were widely diversified in subject matter, and each one attracted a special group of members in addition to those who have a general interest in horticulture and come to most of the Society's lectures. The last lecture was added to the series after the program had been printed, due to the demand for information about Vegetables. The attendance varied from 160 to 250 at the four lectures.

COURSE No. 1—SHORT COURSE IN HORTICULTURE

Anne B. Wertsner, Field Secretary

1941 (Tuesday mornings)

November	25—"Trees and Shrubs"
December	2—"House Plants"
December	16—"Christmas Arrangements"

1942

January	6—"Lawns"
January	13—"Succession of Bloom" (Illustrated)
January	27—"Roses"
February	10—"Gardens near Philadelphia" (Illustrated)
April	7—"Vegetables"
April	14—"Vegetables"

A registration fee of One Dollar, plus Federal Tax of ten cents, was charged to members for the six lectures which formed the main part of the course. Non-members were charged 75 cents, plus Tax, for each lecture. There were 119 registrations, and an average attendance of 64. The lecture on Christmas Arrangements, December 16, was a special lecture and a fee of One Dollar, plus Tax, was charged for it to members and non-members alike. The last two lectures on Vegetables were added after the Course began. They were open to all, without charge.

COURSE No. 2—FLOWER ARRANGEMENT IN WAR-TIME

Anne B. Wertsner, Field Secretary

1942 (Friday mornings)
November 27—Lecture and Demonstration of Arrangements for Hospitals
December 4—Practice Period for members of Course
December 11—Practice Period similar to that of December 4

1943
January 8—Illustrated Lecture—showing Various Types of Arrangements

The first three lectures of this Special Course have proved very helpful to the sixty members who enrolled for the series. The last lecture will be presented in January, 1943, and will be covered in next year's report. For several years, the Lecture Committee has had requests for a practical Course on Flower Arrangement, and it was in reply to that demand that the series was arranged.

In addition to the lectures presented by the Society alone, as summarized above, a Course for Flower Show Exhibitors, in co-operation with the Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania, was presented on January 21 and 22, 1942. The program was as follows:

1942 COURSE FOR FLOWER SHOW EXHIBITORS

January 21—"Small Gardens, Planning and Planting Them," Mrs. Julia A. Latimer.
January 21—"Elementary Principles of Flower Arrangement," Mrs. Robert R. Kearfott.
January 22—"Table Settings," Mrs. Walter R. Hine.
January 22—"Exotic and Dried Plant Material," Mr. S. Gerard Smith.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. WISTER,
Secretary.

GARDEN VISITS, 1942

In 1942, "Garden Visits" were made to nineteen private gardens, with an average attendance of 275 on the first day, just before gasoline rationing began, and an average attendance of 150 on the last two days after the restrictions went into effect. There was no charge to members, but guests of members were charged 75 cents for each afternoon. The proceeds for the three days amounted to $180.00 (after Federal Tax was deducted), and the receipts were allocated as follows: the first afternoon, to the Society for its Victory Garden program; second afternoon, to the Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania; and the third afternoon, to the Norristown Garden Club.

The program of visits, all on Saturday afternoon, was as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Gibson, "Fairy Hill," Meeting House Road, Jenkintown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Bachman, "Reckless Farms," Meeting House Road, Jenkintown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Liddon Pennock, Jr., "Meadowbrook Farm," Washington Lane and Meadowbrook Road, Meadowbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Halford, "Woodsedge," 1676 Sheridan Lane, Halford Tract, Norristown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gruber, "Briar Edge," Lincoln Terrace, Norristown.

As in former years, members were also invited to visit the special plantings of the Arthur Hoyt Scott Horticultural Foundation on the Swarthmore College campus at the height of their bloom; the grounds of the Friends Hospital in Frankford in early May, when thousands of Azaleas were in flower; and the Glendinning Rock Garden in Fairmount Park, also in early May.

The Society expresses its thanks to the persons who generously opened their gardens to members and guests in 1942.

JOHN C. WISTER,

REPORT OF EXHIBITION COMMITTEE FOR 1942

The Philadelphia Flower Show was held, as usual, in 1942 (March 16 to 21), and the Society took charge of the special garden and arrangement classes. Although many of the exhibits were designed to fit in with the War effort, the success of the Show was not affected by War conditions. One of the special "War" classes called for a "Quick Effect on a Limited Budget," and was planned to help people in national service who are subject to call from one place to another at short notice.

The emphasis on vegetables was very pronounced throughout the Show. The 30-foot garden of the School of Horticulture for Women, with 23 kinds of vegetables, was of outstanding excellence. In contrast to the unusual number of exhibits with a utilitarian purpose, a great Jungle Garden, staged by Brighton Florists, Linwood, New Jersey, was full of exotic material and rich color.

Woodland plantings, rock gardens, foundation plantings, gardens featuring pools, formal gardens, and backyards, were beautifully planted. A section of wall, with steps, a small pool and plantings on two levels beside that in the wall itself, was colorful but not over planted. This beautiful exhibit, which featured rare and interesting material, was shown by the Philadelphia Branch of the National Association of Gardeners. An herb display, staged by the Philadelphia unit of the Herb Society of America, was carried out with a garden, drying-shed, flagged steps and portion of lawn. Special plant collections included a fine Begonia exhibit, with the plants clearly and correctly labelled.

Mrs. J. Gibson McIlvain and her Sub-Chairman, Mrs. G. Ruhland Rebmann, Jr., again headed the excellent committee in charge of the Society's section of the Show.

In order to encourage the Victory Garden movement, cash prizes were given by the Society for vegetable exhibits in local flower shows during the late summer and early autumn.

A Chrysanthemum Show was planned early in the year by the Exhibition Committee and a schedule was prepared, but after the Society decided to sponsor the Victory Garden Harvest Show, the Chrysanthemum exhibition was given up and the schedule cancelled.

The Victory Garden Harvest Show, October 1, 2, and 3, was presented by the Society with the co-operation of a large number of organizations. The Show was a great success as far as fine material and excellent staging were concerned, but the attendance of approximately 5,200 for the three days was disappointing. The expenses of the Show were underwritten by the Society, the Philadelphia Flower Show and other co-operating organizations, and eighty-five per cent of the gate receipts (after deducting the ten per cent Federal Tax) were turned over to the Army Emergency Relief and Navy Relief. Each of these Relief agencies received $1,550.09.

In all, the Exhibition Committee feels that 1942 was a most successful year. The splendid Flower Show in March was particularly gratifying in view of the fact that the 1943 March Show must be omitted due to the difficulties of transportation and of staging this type of exhibition in War-Time.

Respectfully submitted,

HAROLD GRAHAM,

Chairman.

REPORT OF THE EXTENSION COMMITTEE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR

October 1, 1941, to September 30, 1942

As in duty bound, I am herewith submitting a report of the operations of the Extension Committee for the fiscal year.

As a matter of fact, aside from incidental consultations as needed and the answering of such letters as came from the office, I do not think our Committee has functioned in a way to be proud of.

We can, however, feel very notable pride in the report of our Field Secretary, Miss Anne B. Wertsner, who seems to have done all the things possible within the reach of one active and capable person.

For the record, therefore, I here append a letter written by Miss Wertsner November 12 which tells of her activities:

"During the year (last October) I had my second trip to Texas and the South, but after that my engagements were mostly in New Jersey, Maryland, New York, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. I am surprised at the interest retained in the lectures on "Flower Arrangement" and "Christmas Decorations"—even at this time I am booked for more lectures on these subjects than on others.

"Many of the horticultural inquiries this year pertained to vegetables and to insect pests and diseases. I believe this was due to the interest in Victory Gardens.

"Again, I was responsible for the staging of the amateur section of the Philadelphia Flower Show, and I assisted with the staging of the Philadelphia Victory Harvest Show. This was a very beautiful show, but unfortunately not well attended. Possibly it was partly due to the times and poor means of transportation and partly because the public was not prepared for such a fine fall show. Many thought that vegetables were all that were to be displayed, but there were beautiful flowers, arrangements, excellent displays of fruited trees and shrubs as well as displays of vegetables and fruits.

"From the statistics listed you will note that I judged many gardens this year. These were during several contests, some in Philadelphia and some in suburbs. Some were particularly interesting because they were small gardens in one of the city housing projects. It was amazing to me to see the interest and enthusiasm displayed among the people at Tasker Homes, the project in South Philadelphia.

"The Society has been most generous in permitting me to continue to take Kodachrome pictures, so I have enhanced the value of our collection and greatly increased my lecture material. I shall have the opportunity to show some of the pictures taken this year at a lecture for the Society December 9th. Last year I showed the pictures taken during 1941 at the Annual Meeting of the Society.

'I am already booked for a number of lectures in 1943, so I shall hope to be able to continue with my work as in the past despite these changing times.

"ANNE B. WERTSNER."

It is quite apparent that Miss Wertsner has done a very good job for us and for horticulture in general. Going to other states than Pennsylvania, particularly Texas, she has shown the true spirit of horticultural democracy which should emanate from the home of American democracy, in Philadelphia. She has represented us wisely and well, and to a considerable extent profitably, as she reports the receipt of $1,415 lecture fees accumulated through 69 lectures, of which 22 were without revenue. Nearly nine thousand people were made acquainted with the spirit of The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society through these lectures as she traveled more than ten thousand miles, attending 25 meetings and judging at 7 Flower Shows.

All of this work, it seems to me, is not only in the true spirit of The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, but highly commendable from the national standpoint. That Miss Wertsner has not been able directly to secure many members is not in any sense to her discredit.

Respectfully submitted,

J. HORACE McFARLAND,

Chairman.
